

ORANGE COUNTY INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY

BACKGROUND, GUIDELINES AND PROCEDURES FOR THE ISSUANCE OF INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT REVENUE BONDS (February 21, 2023 Revision)

INTRODUCTION

This document has been prepared to assist members of the Orange County Industrial Development Authority (the “Authority”) in considering and acting upon applications for the issuance of the Authority’s industrial development revenue bonds and to assist applicants in preparing and submitting applications for the issuance of the Authority’s industrial development revenue bonds.

I. Background: Creation and Purposes of the Authority.

The Authority is an Industrial Development Authority created as a public body corporate and politic for the purpose of financing and refinancing capital projects as defined in, for the public purposes described in, and in the manner and with the powers provided by, Florida Statutes, Chapter 159, Part II Florida Industrial Development Financing Act, and Part III Industrial Development Authorities, collectively subsections 159.25-159.53 (the “Act”). The Authority was authorized to transact business and exercise the powers upon the adoption by the county commission of Orange County (the “County”) of a resolution declaring a need for the Authority to function in the County. Among the powers granted to the Authority under the Act is the power to issue industrial development revenue bonds. The issuance of each issue of industrial development revenue bonds by the Authority is subject to the approval or disapproval of the county commission of the County (the “County Commission”).

II. Industrial Development Revenue Bonds.

Under the Act, the Authority is authorized to issue industrial development revenue bonds for the purpose of financing the costs of projects which are consistent with the criteria and requirements set forth in the Act.

- (a) Definition of “project” for purposes of the Act. The power of the Authority to issue industrial development bonds is limited to the issuance of industrial development bonds for the purpose of financing the cost of “projects,” as defined in the Act. The term “project” as defined in the act may include an industrial or manufacturing plant, a research and development park, an agricultural processing or storage facility, a warehousing or distribution facility, a headquarters facility, a tourism facility, an educational facility, a commercial project in an enterprise zone, a health care facility, or any one of a number of other types of facilities which are listed in the Act. While the federal Internal Revenue Code (the “Code”) does not permit the financing of many of these types of projects with “tax exempt” bonds, the Authority is also permitted by the Taxable Bond Act of 1987, Florida Statutes, Chapter 159, Part VII, subsections 159.821-159.8291, to issue taxable bonds.

- (b) Definition of “cost” for purposes of the Act. The proceeds from the sale of industrial development bonds issued by the Authority may only be used to finance the “cost” of a project. As defined in the Act, the term “cost,” as applied to any project, generally includes the cost of construction, the cost of acquisition of property, both real and personal, the cost of demolishing, removing, or relocating any buildings or structures on acquired lands, the cost of machinery and equipment, certain financing charges, consultants’ and legal fees, and certain other costs.

In connection with the approval by the Authority of an issue of industrial development revenue bonds, the Authority is required to draw certain conclusions and make certain findings of fact with respect to its determination that the bonds are being issued to finance “costs” of a “project,” within the meaning of the Act. Because the terms “project” and “cost” for purposes of the Act and the determination of tax treatment under the Code are subject to substantial legal and factual complexities, members of the Authority are permitted to, and necessarily must, place considerable reliance upon the interpretation of those terms by the bond counsel who is to issue the legal opinions to be delivered in connection with the issuance of subject bonds.

- (c) Criteria and Requirements. In connection with the financing any project with industrial development revenue bonds by the Authority, the Act requires that the Authority shall be guided by and shall observe the certain criteria and requirements; provided, however, that the determination of the Authority as to compliance with such criteria and requirements shall be final and conclusive. Consistent with such criteria and requirements, with respect to any financing approved by the Authority, the Authority must determine to its satisfaction that:

- (1) The project is appropriate to the needs and circumstances of, and shall make a significant contribution to the economic growth of the County; shall provide or preserve gainful employment; shall protect the environment; or shall serve a public purpose by advancing the economic prosperity, the public health, or the general welfare of the State of Florida and its people as set forth in the Act (which generally includes economic development and promotion, improving education, health care and economic opportunity, while providing for protection of the environment, etc.);
- (2) The financing agreement for the project is to be entered into with a party that is financially responsible and fully capable and willing to fulfill its obligations under the financing agreement, including the obligations to make payments in the amounts and at the times required; to operate, repair, and maintain at its own expense the project; and to serve the purposes of the Act and such other responsibilities as may be imposed under the financing agreement. In determining the financial responsibility of such party, consideration shall be given to the party’s ratio of current assets to current liabilities; net worth; earning trends; coverage of all fixed charges; the nature of the industry or activity involved; its inherent stability; any guarantee of the obligations by some other financially responsible corporation, firm, or other person; and other factors determinative of the capability of the party, financially and otherwise, to fulfill its obligations consistently with the purposes of the Act; in its discretion the Authority may require additional information, including a completed feasibility study performed by a nationally recognized and reputable firm;

- (3) The County will be able to cope satisfactorily with the impact of the project and will be able to provide, or cause to be provided when needed, the public facilities, including utilities and public services, that will be necessary for the construction, operation, repair, and maintenance of the project at the expense of the party for whom the project is financed and for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds; and
- (4) The costs to be paid from the proceeds of the bonds shall be costs within the meaning of the Act, except for payments included in the purposes for which revenue bonds may be issued under the Act.

In reaching its determination with respect to the findings set forth above, members of the Authority are required to consider relevant information and exercise prudent business judgment. In their determination Authority members are entitled to rely on information in the application and the presentation by the representatives of the applicant, input from the public at any public hearing concerning the application, input from bond counsel and legal counsel to the Authority, the results of the review of the application by the staff of the Orlando Economic Partnership (the “OEP”) under the OEP’s Management Agreement with the Authority, and any other information which the members, in good faith, believe to be relevant and reliable.

- (d) Required Approval by the County Commission. Pursuant to the provisions of the Act and Florida Statutes, Chapter 125, subsection 125.01(1)(z), any issue of industrial development revenue bonds by the Authority is subject to the prior approval or disapproval of the County Commission. The foregoing approval is required whether the bonds to be issued are taxable or tax-exempt and whether or not the subject bond issue is subject to a required allocation under the Florida Private Activity Bond Allocation Act, Florida Statutes, Chapter 159, Part VI, subsections 159.801-159.816 (the “Allocation Act”).
- (e) Private Activity Bonds Requiring an Allocation. The issuance by the Authority of any issue of industrial development bonds which requires an allocation under Section 146 of the Code shall be subject to the obtaining of such allocation under the Allocation Act.
- (f) Bond Counsel. The guidance of bond counsel is extremely important in the determination of “projects” and “costs” which are eligible for financing with industrial development bonds issued by the Authority whether such bonds are to be taxable or tax exempt. In addition, bond counsel is to be principally responsible for the drafting of the relevant financing agreements and other documentation with respect to the bond issue. For these reasons, among others, it is most important that an applicant for bond financing retain experienced and qualified bond counsel to participate in the preparation of the application for financing and that such counsel be present at the time the Authority meeting at which the application is to be considered.

GUIDELINES

I. Bond Proceeds to Finance Cost of Capital Projects

In accordance with the statutes of the State of Florida pertaining to the authorization, issuance and sale of industrial development revenues bonds, the proceeds from the sale of such bonds shall be utilized to finance only the cost of capital projects including, but not limited to, the following:

- (a) The cost of construction;
- (b) The cost of acquisition of property including rights in land and other property, both real and personal, improved and unimproved;
- (c) The cost of demolishing, removing or relocating any building or structures on lands so acquired;
- (d) The cost of all machinery and equipment, financing charges, interest prior to and during construction, the cost of engineering and architectural surveys, plans and specifications; and
- (e) The cost of consultant and legal services, other expenses necessary or incident to determining the feasibility or practicality of constructing the project, administrative and other expenses necessary or incident to the construction of the project, and the cost of securing the financing for the project.

In general, the costs as defined above which can be financed with the proceeds of industrial development revenue bonds include land and depreciable capital expenses incurred after the effective date of the inducement resolution only. No working capital financing or non-depreciable expenditures (other than land) can be included.

II. Encouragement and Consideration of Projects

The Authority will study the advantages, facilities, resources, projects, attractions and conditions of and in the County with relation to the encouragement of industry and business to locate in the County, and shall use such means and media as the Authority deems advisable, including the issuance of their industrial development revenue bonds, to encourage desirable industry to locate in the County. In carrying out these purposes, the Authority shall cooperate and work with industrial development agencies, chambers of commerce and other local, state and federal agencies, as well as private companies, financial institutions, attorneys and investment bankers having responsibilities in the field of industrial development and financing.

The Authority will be guided by and will observe the following criteria and requirements in approving any project, the cost of which is to be financed by bonds issued by the Authority:

- (a) The project, in the determination of the Authority, will make a significant contribution to the economic growth of the County, will provide gainful employment, and will serve the public purpose of advancing the economic prosperity and general welfare of the County, the State of Florida and its people;
- (b) No project will be financed for any company or individual who is not financially responsible and fully capable and willing to fulfill its obligations to pay the lease, installment sales or other payments in the amounts and at the times required and fulfill its obligation to operate, repair and maintain the project at its own expense, including such other responsibilities as may be imposed under the required agreements; in determining financial responsibility of the applicant, consideration will be given to the applicant's ratio of current assets to current liabilities, net worth, earning trends, coverage of all fixed charges, the nature of the industry or business involved, its inherent stability, and guaranty of the obligations by some other financially responsible corporation, firm or person, and other factors relating to the capability of the applicant, financially and otherwise, to fulfill its obligations consistently with the provisions of Florida law;
- (c) The ability of the County to cope satisfactorily with the impact of the project and its ability to provide, or cause to be provided when needed, the public facilities, including utilities and public services that will be necessary for the construction, operation, repair and maintenance of the project or due to an increase in population or other circumstances resulting from the project; and
- (d) Any other matter which in the opinion of the Authority relates to the viability of the project, the financing, the applicant or the security of the bonds, including the method of sale of the bonds and the purchaser or purchasers of the bonds.

III. Financing

The following financing agreement requirements shall be applicable to the issuance of bonds approved by the Authority:

- (a) The agreements required in financing projects shall include such types of financing agreements as the Authority may approve with such security instruments or trust agreements as it shall deem adequate;
- (b) The applicant will pay all expenses, including reasonable Authority expenses and fees, incurred or incident to the processing of the application and issuance of the bonds if not otherwise paid from the proceeds of the sale of the bonds. Currently the Authority fees include (1) a non-refundable $1,500 application fee due and payable with the application for the issuance of the Authority's industrial development revenue bonds, and (2) a financing fee of one-half (1/2) of one (1%) percent of the first $4,000,000 and one-fourth (1/4) of one (1%) percent of the remainder of the face amount of the bond issue (subject to the limitation that the financing fee shall never exceed $75,000 for any issue of industrial development revenue bonds), due and payable from the bond proceeds on the date of the bond issue closing; the applicant will pay all fees, costs, and expenses of the Authority's counsel associated with the bond issue; should the amount of the Authority fees be insufficient to cover all expenses of the Authority, the Authority will require an additional payment prior to proceeding further with the application (applicant will provide a check in the amount of $250, payable to the State of Florida, Department of General Services, Division of Bond Finance, if the inducement resolution is passed); and

- (c) The Authority will not approve or participate in a "best efforts" underwriting for the sale of the industrial development revenue bonds.
- (d) Effective February 15, 2005, the Authority will issue industrial development revenue bonds only in compliance with the Debt Issuance Policy mandated by the Orange County Commission and attached hereto as Exhibit A.
- (e) Effective February 17, 2015, the Authority Post-Issuance Procedures attached hereto as Exhibit B shall apply.

Following the public hearing, the Authority shall determine, after considering the application, the purposes of the Authority, the Act, the Code, the public input at the hearing and such other information as the Authority deems relevant:

- (a) if the proposed project is consistent with the purposes of the Authority and the applicable statutes, including the criteria for industrial development bonds set forth therein; and
- (b) if the public hearing has provided the affected public an opportunity to comment on the use of tax-exempt financing for the project and if, based upon the public input, if any, and such other information as is available to the Authority, there will be a substantial public benefit from issuance of the bonds.

In the event the County Commission shall not have approved the Authority's resolution, the Authority shall notify the applicant of the Board's action and of such further actions, if any, as are required of the Authority and/or the applicant. V. Bond Validation

If deemed desirable or necessary by the Authority, the Authority’s counsel or other parties to the bond issue, the bonds may be validated in the manner prescribed by appropriate Florida Statutes. Validation proceedings, if instituted, shall be instituted at such time after approval by the Authority of the inducement resolution as the Authority, its counsel and bond counsel shall deem appropriate.

VI. Waiver

The Authority reserves the right to waive, modify or add to any of the above Guidelines and Procedures upon good cause shown by Authority personnel or by any applicant for any proposed bond issue; provided, however, that such waiver, modification or addition shall be consistent with the provisions of Florida law and, if applicable, the provisions of the Code relating to the issuance of industrial development revenue bonds.

VII. Database Information Sheet

- (a) Bonds Without Credit Enhancement and Without a Rating in One of The Three Highest Rating Categories. Unless held by the borrower or a credit enhancer, or an affiliate of either of them, bonds without Credit Enhancement and without a rating in one of the three highest rating categories from a nationally recognized rating service (currently at least A3 from Moodys or A- from FitchRatings or Standard and Poors) (i) shall not be held in a book-entry only system, (ii) shall be sold and subsequently transferred only to a Sophisticated Investor or Investors and (iii) shall comply with the conditions set forth in paragraph (i) or (ii), as determined prior to the issuance of the bonds:

its counsel and its advisors bear no responsibility for the accuracy or completeness of information with respect to the borrower and the project contained in any disclosure document related to the Sophisticated Investor's purchase of the bonds; and

(C) The bonds shall bear a legend restricting subsequent transfers to other Sophisticated Investors who have executed and delivered an "investor's letter" complying with the preceding paragraph (B).

- (b) Each indenture related to bonds which are subject to the restrictions set forth above in Section 4 shall provide that the trustee and the paying agent shall not authenticate or register a bond unless the conditions of this policy have been satisfied.
 - (c) Guarantor Applicants can petition the Authority for a waiver to issue in smaller denominations than required within this Section 4. The Guarantor Applicant must demonstrate a compelling public purpose for smaller denominations. The demonstration of a compelling public purpose may require a formal presentation at the discretion of the Authority. Any waiver granted by the Authority may only be granted prior to submission of TEFRA materials to the County pursuant to Section 2(e).
- (5) Investment of Proceeds. The FA will recommend the investment structure for debt proceeds and bid the investment of proceeds. In the event an FA is not required for a debt amount under $10,000,000 or for a Guarantor Applicant with Investment Grade Credit Ratings, a financial officer of the Guarantor Applicant should submit a signed plan for disposition, investment and safekeeping of the proceeds as a part of the application process which will then be included in the TEFRA request packet for the County. Prior to disbursement of proceeds of debt issued by the Authority, such proceeds shall be held by a trustee bank or financial institution approved by the Authority.
- (6) Continuing Disclosure and Market Transparency.
- (a) The Authority and the Guarantor Applicant will arrange to use a recognized agent as an information repository and dissemination agent for 15(c) 2-12 disclosure, to the extent applicable. Guarantor Applicants with Investment Grade Credit Ratings can choose to undertake any disclosure responsibilities under 15(c) 2-12 through a proprietary process.
 - (b) The Authority and the Guarantor Applicant will ensure that copies of all closing transcripts are forwarded to the Orange County Comptroller and the County Fiscal and Business Services Office.

Exhibit B

AUTHORITY POST-ISSUANCE PROCEDURES

The Authority has established these post-issuance procedures (these “Authority Post-Issuance Procedures”) for the Authority and persons or entities borrowing funds from the Authority (each a “Borrower”) to follow in connection with, and after, the issuance of Bonds the interest on which is excluded from gross income of the holders thereof for federal income tax purposes (“Tax-Exempt Bonds”) to attempt to preserve the exclusion from gross income of interest thereon and to assure compliance with law. These Authority Post-Issuance Procedures are as follows:

SECTION 1. Policy. It is the policy of the Authority to require, and to monitor, compliance with all post-issuance regulatory obligations in connection with maintaining the exclusion from gross income of interest on Tax-Exempt Bonds issued by the Authority, including, without limitation, those established by Section 148 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”). This policy shall be implemented through the adoption of the procedures set forth herein.

SECTION 2. Procedures. In connection with each issuance by the Authority of Tax-Exempt Bonds the following procedures shall, except as otherwise herein provided, be followed:

(a) The Authority shall require that each Borrower have adopted at or prior to the issuance by the Authority of Tax-Exempt Bonds for the benefit of such Borrower, written procedures (“Written Procedures”) to ensure that all requirements of federal income tax law to maintain the tax-exempt status of the interest on such Tax-Exempt Bonds be followed and to remediate any non-compliance with such law. Such Written Procedures must be reviewed by, and be reasonably satisfactory to, the bond counsel for such Tax-Exempt Bonds. At a minimum, such Written Procedures shall require (1) the Borrower to maintain adequate records, including, but not limited to, records tracking the expenditures of the proceeds of the Tax-Exempt Bonds and the investment earnings on such proceeds and that substantiate compliance by the Borrower with the requirements of the Code, (2) that the Borrower timely calculate and make payment of all arbitrage rebate required by federal income tax law, (3) that the Borrower conduct due diligence at regular intervals with regard to compliance with the Code as it applies to the Tax-Exempt Bonds, and (4) that the Borrower appoint an officer or employee to monitor its compliance with the Written Procedures and ensure that such person receive appropriate education and training in connection therewith. To the extent that interest on the Tax-Exempt Bonds is excluded from gross income of the holders thereof pursuant to Section 142(d) of the Code, the Written Procedures may also cross-reference the provisions of a land use restriction agreement between the Authority and the Borrower.

(b) The Authority shall require that, either in the Written Procedures or under the terms of the documents related to the issuance of the Tax-Exempt Bonds, the Borrower agree that, within ninety (90) days after the discovery of (1) its non-compliance with, or deviation from, the requirements of the Written Procedures or (2) any other event that leads the Borrower to believe that the requirements of federal income tax law related to maintaining the exclusion from gross income of interest on the Tax-Exempt Bonds have not been met, the Borrower shall provide to the Authority in writing a description of (A) such non-compliance, and (B) actions proposed to be undertaken by the Borrower to remediate such non-compliance or the impact of such non-compliance, including, without limitation, the entry into a voluntary closing agreement with the Internal Revenue Service.

(c) In connection with the issuance of Tax-Exempt Bonds, the Authority shall, through bond counsel, ensure that (1) the purchaser of the Tax-Exempt Bonds or another party certifies as to the offering price thereof and (2) a Form 8038 (or such other similar required form), completed with information provided by the Borrower, is timely filed with the Internal Revenue Service.

SECTION 3. Exceptions and Modifications. The Authority authorizes the Chairman or Vice Chairman or such other authorized officer of the Authority, in consultation with bond counsel, to waive as necessary and appropriate, and to make exceptions to, the procedures set forth above or to require additional procedures, which exceptions or additions may, but shall not be required to, be documented in a tax agreement or certificate or other document or instrument delivered in connection with Tax-Exempt Bonds. In addition, the Authority reserves the right to supplement, amend or modify such procedures from time to time.

SECTION 4. Effective Date. These Authority Post-Issuance Procedures became effective on February 17, 2015.
