

VETERANS PREFERENCE INFORMATION

It is the policy of Orange County to give veterans' preference to eligible individuals in accordance with state law requirements. On July 1, 2014, Florida Statute 295 was changed and several new groups of individuals were added to those who would be eligible for veterans' preference.

Who is eligible?

- A Veteran with an existing compensable service connected disability who is eligible for or receiving compensation, disability retirement or pension under public laws administered by the DVA and the Department of Defense./ Disabled Veterans.
- The spouse of a Veteran who cannot qualify for employment because of a total and permanent service-connected disability, or the spouse of a Veteran missing in action, captured in line of duty by a hostile force, or detained or interned in line of duty by a foreign government or power.
- A Veteran of any war who has served at least one day on active duty during a wartime period as defined in FS 295.07, Section 1.01 (14), excluding active duty for training, and who was discharged under honorable conditions from the Armed Forces of the United States of America or who has been awarded a campaign or expeditionary medal.

- The un-remarried widow or widower of a Veteran who died of a service-connected disability.
- The mother, father, legal guardian, or un-remarried widow or widower of a service member who died as a result of military service under combat-related conditions as verified by the United States Department of Defense.
- A Veteran as defined in Section FS 1.01 m (14), excluding active duty for training. A person who has served in any branch of the Armed Forces and has been honorably discharged.
- A current member of any reserve component of the United States Armed Forces or The Florida National Guard.

Provisions Regarding Preference

- Veterans' preference in perpetuity: A person eligible for veterans' preference in appointment (defined by s. 295.07, FS) does not forfeit employment preference eligibility once that veteran or eligible spouse of the veteran has been employed by a state agency or any political subdivision of this state. Effective July 1, 2007, Florida law restores veterans' preference in employment for all categories of protected individuals previously employed by a state agency or any political subdivision of this state.
- Preference in layoffs: Where a layoff is necessitated in a covered position, similar preferences must be given to the covered employee in the retention process.
- Preference in reinstatement or reemployment: When an employee in a covered position leaves employment for the purpose of serving in the armed forces, he or she is entitled to reinstatement or reemployment upon release or discharge from active military service.
- Promotion preference: Promotion preference applies only to a veteran's first promotion after reinstatement or reemployment, without exception.

Right to an Investigation

- If you believe that you were not afforded employment preference in accordance with Section 295.07, Florida Statutes, you may file a complaint with the Division of Veterans Affairs requesting an investigation.
- Complaints must be filed within 21 calendar days from the date of notification by the employer or the selection of a non-preference eligible applicant. Complaints should be filed with:
